

Hearts for Him Through Time: Resurrection to Reformation

*A Captivating Fifth or Sixth Grade Program filled with all of the peril and power of the rise and fall of nations...written to capture the hearts of 10-12 year olds!
(Extension Package available for seventh and eighth grade children)*

Don your finest theater clothes, and bring your handiest binoculars, for you have just won a reserved seat with the best view possible of the renowned Resurrection to Reformation time period! From sacrifice to chivalry, from persecution to peace, and from moral decay to enlightenment, the rise and fall of the people, events, and nations of Resurrection to Reformation will have you glued to your seat from start to finish. Applaud for Apostle Paul as he spreads the Good News of Jesus Christ, show your appreciation for Augustine as he toils tirelessly to build the early church, breathe a sigh of relief as the dreaded Attila the Hun and the Dark Ages come to a much awaited end, cheer for Charlemagne as he conquers both by sword and by cross, hold your breath in awe as you watch da Vinci paint 'The Last Supper', rise in a standing ovation as John Wycliffe finally completes his translation of the Bible, and be inspired by Galileo and Columbus to exit your theater seat and go explore the world!

The "Learning Through History" part of the program sets the stage for a chronological and narrative overview of history from Resurrection to Reformation. Children will learn of the Good News after Christ's Resurrection, the struggles and growth of the developing church, and the transformation of the world from the Dark Ages, through the Middle Ages, to the Renaissance. Next, children will learn of the upheaval and redesign of the church in the Reformation, and the global mapping of the world as it was discovered in the Age of Exploration. History will come alive as your children enjoy constructing, baking, painting, dramatizing, and building creative history projects that link to each week's readings and theme.

Corresponding Who's Who? entries of famous men and women, Draw and Write Through History sketches and copywork, artist overview pages with miniature reproductions of paintings, copywork of quotes and Scripture, full-color postcard entries of places researched, oral narrations, full-color mapping, timeline entries, written narrations, corresponding history read-alouds, hands-on history projects, and the option of a Shakespeare study with coloring pages, delve deeply into the history theme and teach necessary skills as well. The result will be a beautiful full-color history notebook that is sure to be the star of the show and a cherished reminder of children's time spent in Resurrection to Reformation!

Resurrection to Reformation has 35 exciting units with complete plans structured in two simple sections called "Learning Through History" and "Learning the Basics". This dual approach to learning lets you relax and enjoy teaching your children, with a feeling of satisfaction that all of your "bases are covered".

Hearts for Him Through Time: Resurrection to Reformation

The “Learning the Basics” part of Resurrection to Reformation moves center stage to teach essential skills. A poetry study of Emily Dickinson has children practicing their lines to study, recite, and share poems. Medieval History-Based Writing Lessons transform children into knights and damsels as they write their way through medieval times, while Looking at Pictures creates a beautiful backdrop scenery to study more than 150 full-color famous paintings. Charlotte Mason style dictation passages, grammar lessons, and literature studies using Drawn into the Heart of Reading help you cast your children in the best role possible by offering several levels of difficulty, along with math, which offers 3 levels of difficulty.

And, that’s not all! “Learning the Basics” also sets the stage for an intriguing year of earth science with living books like Exploring Creation with Astronomy and A Child’s Geography Vol. 1: Explore His Earth. Put yourself in the director’s seat and customize the rest of your science by choosing either Exploring Planet Earth, Along Came Galileo, and Isaac Newton, or God’s Design: Our Weather and Water. Shout “Action!” and have your children play the role of scientist as they perform crowd-pleasing experiments, dialogue through oral narrations, give cues of what they know through written narrations, and create notebooking entries that steal the show. Now, who wouldn’t love science taught like this?!

Finally, “Learning the Basics” will have your children searching for Hidden Treasure in Philippians through an inductive Bible study. The Bible Study in Stereo: Phil. 1 CD will have your children “running through their lines” to rehearse Philippians 1. Last, you become the producer and help your children play the part God intended for them as leading man or lady by studying either Boyhood and Beyond and From Boy to Man, or Beautiful Girlhood and From Girl to Woman, as well as What Is God’s Design for My Body?

And, here’s the grand finale that deserves a round of applause: Resurrection to Reformation takes about 4 to 4½ hours each day to do and has plans for just 4 days a week! So, you can either use the fifth day of the week to explore other interests, or stretch the 4-day plan into 5 days. Convenient packages of resources and the use of only materials you’d find at home make this program ideal for homeschooling. Simple daily plans organized in a two-page, boxed format let you see at a glance what you’ll be doing each day and indicate whether plans are “teacher-directed”, “semi-independent”, or “independent”. This makes it so easy to do school either all in one sitting or divided throughout the day, that the Resurrection to Reformation guide is sure to have you on your feet cheering for an encore!

Comments

So, why not take a few minutes to see what other homeschoolers are saying about Resurrection to Reformation?

"I love how Resurrection to Reformation teaches you how to love learning and love God through history. Heart of Dakota chooses the most fun and informative books to put in their programs. Since I've started using Heart of Dakota, I've really grown to love school. I can't wait to use their next program!"

Zarina (student using Resurrection to Reformation) in Georgia

"Heart of Dakota has been such a blessing to my family. Last year was my first year homeschooling, and Heart of Dakota made it so easy and enjoyable. This year we are using Resurrection to Reformation, and I have enjoyed watching my daughter learn so much and become more independent in her studies. Thank you for such a wonderful and God-honoring curriculum!"

Mindy in Shreveport, Louisiana

"Our family started Heart of Dakota with Creation to Christ. Resurrection to Reformation has been an amazing continuation of understanding God's hand in history! Exploring the Middle Ages and the Reformation has given our whole family a greater understanding of the world we are living in right now. The beautiful notebook pages have helped us record what we are learning, giving us something to review when dad gets home. The books, the maps, and the history projects make our day fun and interesting! Resurrection to Reformation has brought to life a time period that has, up until now, been a mystery to me! I am learning as much as the kids, which makes our family so much closer.

Thank you Heart of Dakota!"

Anne in Lindale, Texas

"Resurrection to Reformation is awesome! The books and projects are every bit as wonderful as those within the younger Heart of Dakota guides. Independence is one of the many skills that is taught through this guide. Because of this new found independence, I love watching my daughter get excited about what she is learning. She is always anxious and ready to share all of the amazing facts she has learned through Resurrection to Reformation.

Thanks again for another amazing guide!"

Patti in Orangefield, Texas

"What drew us into Resurrection to Reformation...the great books. We are using the extension package, as well as the basic, and my son enjoys all the books -- even Shakespeare!!! We have learned so much about this time period, and more importantly the information sticks with my son, since he's learning through living books. He's often saying, "Hey, mom, did you know...?"

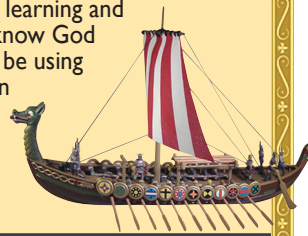

I remain amazed at how you find such great books for your curriculum!"

Michelle in Amana, Iowa

"We have been so blessed by Resurrection to Reformation this year! I love how the information learned is intertwined with the truths of God, and then taken farther in the Student Notebook encouraging the students to picture themselves in the time period and simultaneously see God's hand in it. This guide really builds an independent love of learning and independence in coming to know God deeper and personally. We'll be using Resurrection to Reformation again when my younger children are ready, and honestly I can't wait!"

Brenda in Buford, Georgia

Now, why not take a quick peek at the Resurrection to Reformation Teacher's Guide?!

A Engaging true stories provide a biographical approach to the time period of the Resurrection of Christ through the Reformation. Independent follow-up assignments include oral narrations, written narrations, Who's Who? entries of famous men and women, and mapping.

B Three days in each unit are devoted to a meaningful, hands-on project that helps bring the history stories to life. These projects are scheduled to be completed a little each day.

F Daily, students will read from the Bible to complete a study of Philippians. By year-end, students will also memorize all of Philippians 1 along with music, copy it, and practice the habit of prayer through their daily quiet time.

G Grammar lessons are planned using the last half of Rod and Staff English: Level 4 or 5 twice weekly. Three days in each unit are devoted to studied dictation to practice spelling skills, Drawn Into the Heart of Reading to focus on literature study, and Medieval History-Based Writing Lessons to work on writing skills.

Learning through History Focus: The Ancient Church

Unit 1 - Day 1

Reading about History I

Read about history in the following resource:
★ Peril and Peace: What was the Ancient Church? and Paul: A Servant... p. 11-24
After today's reading, orally narrate or retell to an adult the portion of text that you read today. Use the Narration Tips in the Appendix for help as needed.

Key Idea: Paul spread the gospel of Jesus to many cities all over the Roman Empire. He wrote letters to encourage and correct these new churches, and these letters are part of the New Testament. Even though Paul was a Jew, he preached to both Jews and Gentiles. On his way to trial in Rome, Paul was shipwrecked at Malta. Luke and Aristarchus were Paul's companions on this journey.

Storytime T/I

Get an index card. Title it "Vivid Descriptions". Make 2 columns on the card. Label the first column "Page" and the second column "Description of...". During today's reading, listen or watch for one description that paints a vivid picture in your mind of a character, place, or event. Note on the card the page number on which the description occurred and what it described. Read the following assigned pages:

★ Forbidden Gates: Ch. 1 p. 1-11
After the assigned reading, either hand in your card or share it aloud. Then, save the card.

Key Idea: Identify and note vivid descriptions.

Research I

After the shipwreck at Malta, Paul eventually sailed for Rome. He spent time in Rome under house arrest for over two years. Where could you look to discover more about Rome? Use a reference book or an online resource like www.wikipedia.org. You may wish to look in more than one resource to make sure the facts are accurate.

Then, open your Student Notebook to Unit 1 - Box 4. On the postcard, write to someone about Rome by sharing the answers from your research to the following questions: Of which country is Rome the capital city? Describe where Rome was built. Near which famous river is Rome located? What has Rome been nicknamed? Name some famous tourist destinations in Rome and tell a bit about them.

Key Idea: Paul spent several years under house arrest in Rome while preaching and writing.

Independent History Study I

★ Listen to What in the World? Vol. 2 Disc 1, Tracks 1-2: "Welcome to Medieval History" and "First-Century Church & Emperors".

Key Idea: Christ's resurrection was the spark that ignited the early church and gave hope to the faithful.

Learning the Basics Focus: Language Arts, Math, Bible, Art, and Science

Unit 1 - Day 1

Bible Quiet Time I

Bible Study: Read the assigned pages in the following resource:

★ Hidden Treasures in Philippians p. 7-8
Prayer Focus: Pray a prayer of adoration to worship and honor God. Begin by praying, Lord, I worship you for you...

Scripture Memory: Recite Philippians 1:1.
Music: Philippians 1 CD: Track 1 (verse 1)
Key Idea: Introduce the study of Philippians.

Language Arts S

Have students complete one studied dictation exercise (see Appendix for directions and passages).

Help students complete one lesson from the following reading program:

★ Drawn into the Heart of Reading

Work with the students to complete one of the writing options listed below:

★ Medieval History-Based Writing Lessons Student Book Refer to front blue page "Accessing Your Downloads" (From the Internet, print and compile the 2017 Student Resource Notebook p. 13, 93-95, 100-102, 106-108, 111-113, 117, 127-128, 151, p. 153-159, p. 161, and p. 163-165)
Read Teacher's Manual sidebars p. 6 "Customizing..." and "Grading... Checklist"
★ Your own writing program

Key Idea: Practice language arts skills.

Art Appreciation T

Read the assigned pages in the resource below.

★ Looking at Pictures p. 8-10
After reading, open the Student Notebook to the back section titled "The Art Gallery". Find Cognoscenti (Art Lovers) Looking at Pictures in Unit 1. Introduce the title of the painting. Then, quietly study the picture, absorbing every detail. After studying the picture, place it facedown and take turns narrating details from the painting. Listen carefully to one another so as not to repeat what has already been shared. When no more details are forthcoming, view the picture to clarify the details in your minds. Then, ask students to share any impressions of the story within the picture, the colors and lines, areas of light and shadow, thoughts on the historical time period, or guesses as to the time of day.

Key Idea: As in a worthy book, we leave the author to tell his own tale, so do we trust a picture to tell its tale through the medium the artist gave it. - Charlotte Mason (Vol. 6, p. 216)

Math Exploration S

Choose one of the math options listed below (see Appendix for details).

★ Singapore Primary Mathematics 4A/4B, 5A/5B, or 6A/6B
★ Your own math program

Key Idea: Use a step-by-step math program.

Science Exploration I

★ Read Exploring Creation with Astronomy p. 14-15. Day 1 of each unit includes a science notebook assignment. Store completed notebook entries in a 3-ring binder with plastic page protectors or in a bound sketchbook with unlined pages. At the top of an unlined paper, copy Psalm 19:1. Beneath the copy the planet chart shown in "Activity 1.1" on p. 19. Complete the chart with your own mnemonic phrase. For an example, see the chart shown above "Activity 1.1" on p. 19.

Key Idea: Astronomy is the study of the universe, which belongs to God and was made by

Now In Color

C Additional resources that coordinate with the history study such as audio presentations, sketching, copywork, notebook entries, artist overview pages, Biblical references, and mapping round out the Independent History Study part of the plans.

D Daily read-alouds correspond with the history time period being studied and emphasize listening for a variety of skills such as new vocabulary, vivid descriptions, plot twists, strong moods, life lessons, great lines, and oral narrations.

E Research skills, mapwork, timeline entries, and optional Shakespeare readings/notebooking rotate through this part of the plans each unit. These activities coordinate with the history stories.

H Guided written narration, notebook entries, written and oral narration practice, vocabulary words, and experiments with lab sheets coordinate with the daily independent science readings which focus on earth science.

I An art appreciation study using Looking at Pictures, a poetry study of Emily Dickinson, and a guided study on becoming a Godly young man or woman rotate through this daily meeting time led by the parent.

J Daily math lessons are scheduled in the Appendix for Singapore Math 5A/5B and Math 6A/6B. For those transferring from another math program, the schedule for Math 4A/4B is also provided in the Appendix if needed.

So, now that you're energized to start your child's learning with Resurrection to Reformation, check out what you need to get started!

★ Resurrection to Reformation Teacher's Guide

This jewel of a guide has 35 weeks of "open and go" 4-day plans. Each day of plans is shown on 2 pages. This balanced and practical guide can be used for 1 complete year of 5th or 6th grade sessions and includes extensions for older students. Resurrection to Reformation was written with the busy homeschool teacher in mind, so each day of plans takes only about 4 to 4 1/2 hours to do. The "boxes" of plans can be spaced throughout the day. Guides just don't come as easy-to-use as Resurrection to Reformation! ($92.95)

★ Peril and Peace – Chronicles of the Ancient Church

Through stories of heroes like Paul, Justin, and Benedict, discover how God drew together people from different countries, cultures, and times to build the Christian church. Marvel at the things God did without the tears but with all the wonder. Note: Students read this book independently; so several chapters are skipped due to content. ($9.99)

★ The Story of the Middle Ages

This timeless reprint from Yesterday's Classics makes the history of the Middle Ages come to life in a simple, direct, and entertaining way. Children step back in time to learn what life was like for peasant, noble, and court. Students read this book independently. ($10.95)

★ Monks and Mystics

Personify history by reading about heroes such as Gregory the Great, Charlemagne, Catherine of Sienna, and John Wycliffe to find how people struggled against persecution and problems from inside and out. Learn from their amazing strengths and gifts, and marvel at God's wonderful care of His people and the Christian church. ($9.99)

★ Famous Men of the Middle Ages

This classic text eloquently guides students through the Dark Ages and illuminates the transition of the world from the end of ancient times to the birth of the modern era. With over 50 beautiful full-color paintings, this edition is the one chosen to correspond with Resurrection to Reformation. Note: The first 2 sections are omitted within the plans. ($16.95)

★ Mystery of History Vol. III: The Renaissance, the Reformation, the Growth of Nations

Glimpse the great power, minds, and passion of those that lived from 1455 - 1707. Take a bird's eye view of what was going on all over the world chronologically. See the rise of wealthy empires in West Africa; visit Ivan the Terrible in Russia; meet the master painters, sculptors, scientists, and philosophers of the Renaissance; board a ship to seek out spices and riches in the east, and give thanks with the Pilgrims for survival. Students read this entire colorful, hardback 4 days a week over a period of 21 weeks. ($59.95)

★ Resurrection to Reformation Student Notebook

Create a special portfolio of assignments as a keepsake of what you learned in Resurrection to Reformation. Pages come 3-hole punched on heavy paper for easy insertion into a binder. A vivid full-color cover matching the Resurrection to Reformation cover is included to place in a clear sleeve in the front of your binder. Directions in the Resurrection to Reformation guide explain where to place assignments on the provided pages. ($39.95)

[Each student will need his/her own set of Student Notebook Pages.] [Additional sets may be purchased individually from Heart of Dakota.]

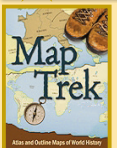

SAMPLE PAGES p.68

★ World History Atlas

This invaluable collection of attractive historical maps is designed to be colorful, easy-to-read, informative, detailed, and accurate. These carefully selected maps provide global coverage for the major historical periods. ($14.95)

★ Map Trek V. 2 – Medieval World (Printable CD)

This comprehensive map collection comes complete with full-color maps for teachers, blank outline maps for students, grid maps, blank grids, instructions for use of maps, and a glossary of terms. Three different levels of lesson plans help make clear what to assign children to do and make mapping a fun and painless way of studying the world! Printable CD. ($16.95)

★ What in the World? Vol. 2

With catching zeal, Diana Waring artfully tells about the Vikings, Feudalism, Renaissance, Seven Years War, and more. See what it was like to live during this time, and see how the hand of God guided it all. This 4-CD set beautifully integrates Biblical history and secular history. ($21.97)

★ Draw and Write Through History – The Vikings, the Middle Ages, and the Renaissance

Draw and write your way through history as you learn about castles, Robin Hood, Pagodas, a musketeer, and more. Full-color drawings are shown with step-by-step illustrations, and cursive handwriting passages are modeled for children to copy. These appealing drawings and copywork will be placed in our Student Notebook Pages and correspond well with the readings in Resurrection to Reformation. ($12.95)

Resurrection to Reformation Resources

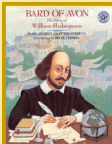

Gabriel and the Hour Book

The medieval world comes to life as Brother Stephen and little Gabriel work to make an "hour book" as a wedding gift from King Louis to Lady Anne. As a color grinder, young Gabriel makes the ink and grinds the gold, but he also pens the prayer he has for his father to be let out of prison in Count Pierre's castle, as well as a request for their land to be returned. How his prayer is answered stirs the heart! ($7.95)

Bard of Avon – The Story of William Shakespeare

How did a man from an unremarkable family create a legacy that the world will never forget? Learn of Shakespeare's life and his theater in Diane Stanley's and Peter Vennema's amazing book that offers a feast of words and pictures celebrating the life of a remarkable person from the pages of history: "William Shakespeare, a man for all time". ($7.99)

The Hidden Treasures in Philipians

This inductive Bible study helps students be archaeologists that sift and sort through Philipians to come away with truths that will help them the rest of their lives. It develops Godly character and invites students to learn the lifelong habit of digging into Scriptures for God's truth. Each student will need his/her own workbook. ($12.99)

Looking at Pictures – An Introduction to Art for Young People

With more than 150 full-color stunning illustrations and clear prose, Looking at Pictures teaches the basic concepts and vocabulary of painting. This revised edition has a fresh design and features Leonardo, Rembrandt, Matisse, Seurat, Picasso, and many more. This book is scheduled weekly for parent and student to enjoy together. ($24.95)

Tales from Shakespeare [optional]

First published in the early 19th century, these adaptations of Shakespeare's 14 comedies and 6 tragedies (told in prose) were intended for children. They introduce young readers to the works of the famous bard, while preserving whenever possible Shakespeare's own words. They're suitable for older elementary or middle school students. ($14.95)

Shakespeare Student Notebook [optional]

These full-color Shakespeare notebook pages were specially made to accompany the optional Shakespeare study in Resurrection to Reformation. They come 3-hole punched on heavy paper for easy insertion into a binder. They include black and white portions of artwork for students to color after each weekly reading, as well as quotes to copy. The result is a special keepsake portfolio from the student's study of Shakespeare. ($13.95)

[Each student will need his/her own set of Shakespeare Student Notebook pages.]

9 Basic Package

The Basic Package has 12 history read-alouds that make text connections with the history theme in Resurrection to Reformation. If you are already doing a storytime package with a different Heart of Dakota program, you may choose to have 5th-6th grade students read these books on their own, but students should be strong, independent readers that aren't overly sensitive. Otherwise, reading aloud is the preferred method for using this package. The Basic Package is highly recommended, unless you need to economize. Titles are listed below. ($117.05) SAVE $20.66

✓ Forbidden Gates

Nathan is a Jewish boy who knows Temple rules say no Gentile is allowed in the inner court. But, when a Gentile asks to meet with God, Nathan lets him in anyway. ($6.99)

✓ Mystery of the Silver Coins

Bree and a slave make a daring escape from a ship. Mikkel searches for Bree, since he thinks she took a missing bag of coins. When Bree tries to forgive him, Mikkel wonders if her Living God is more powerful than his Vikings gods? ($8.99)

Resurrection to Reformation Resources

The Illustrated Book of Knights

A celebration of all things chivalrous, this book has 127 colorful pictures of heroic knights. The text reflects life as it was 1000 years ago among crusaders and knights. ($14.95)

Morning Star of the Reformation

John Wycliffe attends Oxford, lives through a plague, and dreams of making an English Bible. In dark Medieval England, John's pursuit of truth gleams like a star! ($12.99)

Ink on His Fingers

John Gutenberg, a printer, and Hans Dunne, a scribe, work to print the first Bible with type. Can they finish it and pay back debt before banker Herr Fust takes the type? ($9.99)

Leonardo da Vinci

Da Vinci was an amazing painter, sculptor, architect, scientist, and inventor. Stanley's delightful storytelling and vivid illustrations convey the genius of da Vinci. ($7.99)

Mr. Pipes and Psalms and Hymns of the Reformation

Join Mr. Pipes and two young American friends as they take a tour of the famous hymn writers through Europe. History of the hymns and the hymn writers draw the reader closer to Christ, and teach character, history, and faith. ($13.95)

Good Queen Bess

Queen Elizabeth's forceful personality, colorful court, and devoted subjects come vividly to life as authors Stanley and Vennema paint an impressive portrait of the queen who loved her people so dearly and ruled them so well. ($17.99)

The Story of Sir Walter Raleigh

Travel with Raleigh through boyhood, to exploits in Ireland, to Queen Elizabeth's court, and as he pursues ships, searches for gold, and lives in the Tower of London. ($7.95)

The Legend of Squanto: An Unknown Hero Who Changed the Course of American History

This Focus on the Family audio drama tells the little-known details of the story of an early American that triumphed over injustice and changed what would become the U.S. ($14.97)

A Piece of the Mountain - The Story of Blaise Pascal

Blaise Pascal was an important scientist and mathematician of the 1600's. He also became a Christian and made provisions for his son's education that are some of the earliest examples of successful homeschooling. ($12.95)

The Tinker's Daughter - A Story Based on the Life of Mary Bunyan

Born blind in 1650, Mary brought soup to her father John Bunyan in prison. Being very independent, she spent years proving the only help she needed was from the Lord. ($7.99)

10 Extension Package

This package is an OPTIONAL part of Resurrection to Reformation.

These 11 books extend the study of history to include more advanced independent reading material. This allows your 7th and 8th grade students to learn along with your younger students. This package is best suited for mature 7th and 8th graders who are strong, independent readers. A schedule for these books is provided in the Appendix. For sensitive 7th or 8th graders, or for those who are not yet strong readers, we recommend the Basic Package instead. For book descriptions, visit the website at www.heartofdakota.com. ($94.10) SAVE $16.61
