Comments

So, what do homeschoolers just like you have to say about World History?

"We are so thankful for Heart of Dakota! I can focus on teaching my children, knowing the very best books and resources are at our fingertips each day. We loved using the World History guide last year, reading amazing books, completing fun projects, and connecting with our learning in a very unique way. From traveling with Christian in Pilgrim's Progress, to experiencing historical events as if we were actually there, as well as interacting with literature through the light of God's Word. Homeschooling through high school with Heart of Dakota has been a real blessing!"

Lisa in Wisconsin

"I love that my son is so independent with his work in the World History guide, and that he is able to move throughout his day doing each assignment in the order that he chooses, which helps him feel more in control of his education. He says his favorite part about this guide is the literature study and especially the book choices. One of my favorite parts is the Pilgrim's Progress study, which we enjoy saving to do together on Sunday's after church. I was also pleasantly surprised with how easy teaching high school Biology and doing Biology labs was because of Heart of Dakota's recommendations! Thank you from the bottom of my heart!"

Miranda in Semmes, Alabama

"We loved using World History because it was a wonderful fit for our son, who has Aspergers. There is such an interesting variety of books and activities--he never liked art before using the art program included in this curriculum, but the lessons were well-taught and easy to follow. He was surprised at how well his projects turned out. The best part, though, is not being tied to a computer for everything. He can read on the couch or outside, at the table or in the recliner. And I like that he can follow his guide independently while still being accountable to the teacher for his progress."

Lisa in Fort Belvoir, Virginia

"My daughter said, 'I like doing Heart of Dakota, It makes me feel like I am in a prestigious private school.' These programs are deep, rich, and thought provoking. They inspire my daughter to dig deeper, work harder, and ask tough questions. I don't know if that equates to 'a prestigious private school' experience, but I will never question the potential that lies between the covers of each of these well designed high school guides. Thank you, Mrs. Austin, for listening to God's calling to share your gifts with other homeschooling families and for your excellent execution of this monumental task."

Letha in Blackshear, Georgia

"We are a Heart of Dakota family! My 14 year old is currently doing World History. I have loved the challenging curriculum, the simplicity of the grade book template, and the thorough class descriptions. My daughter is enjoying the Fine Arts choice, Spanish, and all the wonderful books she gets to read. She was hesitant about Pilgrim's Progress when we first saw the curriculum, but has been pleasantly surprised with how helpful the books and audio have been to her understanding. I have peace of mind that Heart of Dakota is setting her up for success even in subjects that aren't her strongest. We have been using Heart of Dakota from the beginning and continue to love this curriculum."

Julia in Shorewood, Minnesota (Homeschooling 5 children, all with HOD)

Learning Through History

Focus: The Flood, the Fertile Crescent, and the First Civilizations

Unit 1 - Day 1

World History

I

Read about history in the resource below.

★ Unveiling the Kings of Israel p. 7-15

You will be writing a narration about today's reading. For guidance on writing a narration, see Written Narration Tips in the Appendix. To prepare for writing your narration, look back over the pages that you read today. Think about the main topics or ideas in the reading. Then, turn to Unit 1 in your World History Journal. In Box 3, write a 3-5 paragraph narration about the reading. When you have finished writing, read your narration out loud to catch any mistakes. Check for the following things: Did you stick to the main topics emphasized in the reading? Does each paragraph have a main idea with several supporting details? Did you write in a style that reflects the personality of the author? Did you include a strong opening and closing sentence? If not, add those things. Use the Written Narration Skills in the Appendix as a guide for editing the narration.

Key Idea: Fossils and Flood stories from around the world lend support to the Biblical Flood account. An Assyrian version of the Flood story known as The Epic of Gilgamesh contains many parallels to the Genesis account.

History Activities

Read about history in the resource below.

★ People, Places & Events of World History Chapter 1, Introduction p. vi
After reading the "Introduction," mark points in the text that support the Biblical account of Creation and the Flood. To mark the text, either use a light-colored highlighter and highlight the points, or use a pencil and draw a star next to each point, or use a sticky note and place it next to the points with arrows on the sticky note to direct you to the relevant portions of the text. Share your marked points with an adult.

Key Idea: There are archaeological discoveries that give credibility to a worldwide flood.

Living Library

I

Read the following assigned pages:

★ The Cat of Bubastes p. v - middle of p. 23

After today's reading, photocopy the "Literary Synthesis Sheet" and the "Word and Idea Helper" sheet from the Appendix. Staple the two pages together. You will use these sheets to organize and note important information as you read. By the time you have finished reading the book, you will need to have completed your "Literary Synthesis Sheet." Today, begin by completing the "Story Title" box. Be sure to list possible meanings for the title in parentheses as directed. Fold the papers in half and keep them in your book.

Key Idea: Take notes to synthesize information from the literature that you are reading.

Fine Arts

I

Open your Art Gallery Notebook to Unit 1. As you watch the DVD segment listed below, answer the questions in Box 1 of your Art Gallery Notebook. For today's activities, use the resource below.

★ God & the History of Art: Disc 1
On the DVD, select "Lesson 1." Then, watch "Part 1: What is Art?" up to 13:31 on the counter.

Key Idea: Like all of God's beautiful creation, art is something that should touch the heart of man. When studying the history of art, it is important to look for integrity in art.

Foreign Language

I

Choose one foreign language option below.

★ Spanish I: Unit 1 p. 1-2

★ Your own foreign language program

Key Idea: Learn a foreign language.

Learning the Basics

Focus: Health, Bible, Literature, Composition, Grammar, Math, and Science

Unit 1 - Day 1

Pilgrim's Progress

S

Read the assigned pages listed below. See the suggestions for "Reading text" on p. 11-12, or students may read alone silently if preferred.

★ All-in-One: Pilgrim's Progress p. 31-43
While reading, refer to the "Words to Know" on p. 44 as needed. Since students already have Scripture memory work in Bible, they will not be responsible for memorizing the verses on p. 44. Instead read the "Memory Verses" assigned on p. 44 aloud. Complete "Digging Deeper" p. 47-48 by discussing the questions orally (Note: Question 8 may be oral as well).

Key Idea: Read and discuss the "Historical Background" and the "Author's Apology."

Literature Study

I

Introduce: Read the "Introduction" to Ben Hur on p. V-VII. Underline any references to theme or style within the "Introduction."

Read and Annotate: Ben Hur p. 3 - middle of p. 21
Note: An annotation is a way to connect with the text by underlining something you want to remember, circling key words, starring an important passage, placing a question mark next to something you wonder about, and writing brief questions, comments, or notes in the margin. Your reading should include multiple annotations.

One annotation in the margin of your reading for today should note that the three strangers (Gaspar the Greek, Melchior, and Balthasar) are the three wise men.

Key Idea: Introduce author, theme, and style for the book Ben Hur.

Composition/Grammar

Have students complete one studied dictation exercise (see Appendix for passages).

Help students complete one English option.

★ Building Securely: Lesson 57

★ Your own grammar program

Key Idea: Use grammar skills in composition.

Bible

I

Hymn: Selah Greatest Hymns CD: Track 1 "Be Thou My Vision" (Note: Read the provided liner notes for this hymn in the CD insert.)

Bible Study: The Most Important Thing You'll Ever Study: Old Testament Volume 1 p. 9-15 and p. 21 (questions 1-7 only)

Prayer: In your "Prayer Journal," write today's date and list the following parts of prayer, writing each on its own line:

Praise God:

Offer Thanks:

Confess:

Ask God:

After praying, list key words or phrases next to each part to summarize your prayer.

Key Idea: God reveals Himself in His Word.

Science with Lab

I

Read and complete the pages assigned below.

★ Biology Science 1097 Text p. 2-6

Go to www.aceconnect.com online to watch and complete "Biology 1097 Lab 1: Introduction to Biological Research" (5 min. 11 sec.).

Key Idea: Birds have two main types of feather structures, pennaceous and plumaceous.

Math

Choose one of the math options listed in the "Course Descriptions," or use your own math. If desired, write the day's assignment next to the star. It is recommended that students complete either Algebra II or Geometry this year.

Key Idea: Complete Geometry or Algebra II.

Learning about the history of the English language has never been quite so entertaining! ($15.60)

★ Trial and Triumph - Stories from Church History

Christians find their true family line not through tribes and ethnic blood, but in the bond of faithfulness and shed blood that has united our family for millennia. These biographies provide a glimpse into the inspiring role that the Christian faith played in the lives of people throughout history. Note: This book is a tremendous resource for Church history, but due to its mature content, we waited to use it until students were older and more mature in their faith. Appreciating the sacrifice that Christians have made for their faith, especially when used in conjunction with the other resources in the World History guide, helps students gain a fuller picture of each person and his/her role in history. ($21.00)

★ Courage and Conviction - Chronicles of the Reformation Church

Get to know the queens and explorers who risked everything for the freedom to worship according to their consciences. Learn from their mistakes and be encouraged by their amazing strengths and gifts! ($14.99)

★ Critical Thinking Using Primary Sources in World History

Use primary and secondary source material to explore the lives and times of a variety of notable historical figures. This resource takes evaluation of primary source documents to a new level by providing historical background information about the person and the time period being studied, critical-reading questions to guide the reading of the documents, and multiple documents about a singular event or person for students to compare. After reading and analyzing the provided documents, students must then take a stand about a "charge" against the person in history and defend that stance using excerpts from the primary source documents to support their stance. This process develops critical thinking and opinion-based writing skills, and prepares students for document-based assessment. ($26.00) Note: Either reproduce these lessons or purchase one per student.

★ Most Important Thing You'll Ever Study - Old Testament Survey

God chose to reveal Himself to us through His Holy written Word, and to see God's overall message, the Bible is to be read like any other book – from beginning to end! This non-denominational Protestant study leads high school students through Old Testament Scripture, guiding them in a walk through the Bible from beginning to end to better understand the big picture – and understanding the big picture is truly an area where Starr Meade has been gifted by the Lord! Meade guides students to know what God is like, what He requires, and how to have a right relationship with Him through reading His Word. This daily Bible Study includes reading God's Word, answering questions in the study guide, memorizing Scripture, keeping a prayer journal, and completing a hymn study.

Note: This Bible based study is appropriate for a full year of Bible for high school aged students. One set is needed for each student. ## ★ Ben Hur

This is the remarkable saga of a man framed for attempting to murder a Roman official, and condemned to death as a galley slave. Epic in scope, it recreates Imperial Rome from a thrilling sea battle, to the famous chariot race, to the agony of Crucifixion. This classic novel, subtitled "A Tale of the Christ", has fascinated readers for generations with its vivid depictions of Jesus' life interwoven with the fictional story of Judah Ben-Hur, a young Jew who finds his life inexorably changed by the Messiah. A thoroughly exhilarating tale of betrayal, revenge and salvation, Wallace writes with a freshness and immediacy that brings every action-packed scene to life and vividly illuminates the geography, ethnology and customs of the ancient world. ($5.99)

★ Ben Hur Audio Drama by Focus on the Family (2 CD-Set)

Focus on the Family Radio Theatre's production of Ben-Hur tells the tale of a nobleman who fell from Roman favor and was sentenced to live as a slave - all at the hands of his childhood friend, Messala. Once nearly brothers, any hope of reconciliation is dashed after Messala is seriously injured during a vicious chariot race won by the vindictive Ben-Hur. But what makes this adaptation of Lew Wallace's best-selling story unforgettable is the changed man Ben-Hur becomes after seeing Christ on the cross. Recorded in London with film-style sound, this action-packed production underscores the fact that the power of God's love and true forgiveness are the only forces stronger than hatred and revenge. ($6.99)

★ No Fear Shakespeare: Julius Caesar

A conspiracy is hatched, one that will have fatal consequences not only for Caesar and the conspirators, but for the future history of the ancient world. Rider Haggard tells the story of Miriam, a young Christian woman living in the Roman Empire during the first century, and Marcus, the Roman officer who desired to win her hand. The historic events portrayed in this story culminate in the Roman siege and destruction of Jerusalem and its Temple in 70 AD. ($16.95)

★ The Story of King Arthur and His Knights

King Arthur, his Knights of the Round Table, and the court of Camelot come to life in this lively and chivalrous retelling of the Arthurian legends. The book chronicles the adventures of Arthur as he draws the sword Excalibur from the anvil, courts and wins the heart of Guinevere, suffers the treachery of the wicked Morgana le Fay, and witnesses the tragic fate of Merlin. In Pyle's classic retelling, the legends come alive in unsurpassed vividness. Note: These stories do contain references to magic, but good and evil are also clearly portrayed. The legends of Arthur are a part of understanding medieval times and show Britain at a time when the Christian religion was overtaking the religion of the Celtic Druids. Known for his bravery, honor, and love, this rendition illustrates the selflessness a king should have for his people. ($6.95)

★ A Man for All Seasons: A Play in Two Acts

Sir Thomas More – the gifted nobleman, lawyer, humanist, and author of such works as Utopia – was a long-time friend of Henry VIII, ascending to the position of Lord Chancellor in 1529. Yet, he was also a staunch Catholic, and when Henry broke with the Church after the Pope refused to grant him a divorce, More resigned. In 1534, Parliament passed a bill requiring all subjects to take an oath acknowledging the supremacy of England's king over all foreign sovereigns – including the Pope. More refused, was imprisoned, and was executed. Bolt's play is a brilliant dramatization of this conflict, but first and foremost, it is a compelling portrait of a courageous man who died for his convictions. ($15.00)

★ The Scarlet Pimpernel

An irresistible blend of romance, intrigue, and suspense, this timeless historical adventure recalls the Reign of Terror following the French Revolution, when ruthless mobs ruled the streets of Paris and hundreds of royals faced the guillotine each day. The only hope of many was a courageous leader who spirited aristocrats across the Channel to England and safety. Known by the name of the wildflower he leaves as a calling card, the Pimpernel becomes the darling of the people and is particularly admired by Marguerite Blakeney, who scorns her foppish husband as ardently as she esteems this gallant hero. ($6.95)

★ The Count of Monte Cristo

Set in the turbulent Napoleonic era, Alexandre Dumas's thrilling adventure story is one of the most widely read novels of all time. In it the dashing young hero, Edmond Dantès, is betrayed and thrown into a secret dungeon in the Chateau d'If – doomed to spend his life in a prison cell. The story of his long, intolerable years in captivity, his miraculous escape, and his carefully wrought revenge creates a dramatic tale of intrigue, and paints a vision of France – a dazzling, dueling, exuberant France – that has become immortal. Dumas presents a powerful conflict between good and evil embodied in an epic saga complicated by the hero's ultimate discomfort with the implications of his own actions. Note: We prefer not to use abridged versions of classic literature, but the length of this novel is daunting. This particular abridgement is the only one we recommend and schedule. It keeps the narrative, retains rich descriptions, and allows for a few mature elements to be omitted. ($8.99)

★ Les Misérables

Meet one of the most famous characters in literature: Jean Valjean, the noble peasant imprisoned for stealing a loaf of bread. Ranked among the greatest novels of all time, Les Misérables dives into the Parisian underworld, immerses readers in a battle between good and evil, and carries them to the uprising of 1832 with a breathtaking realism unsurpassed in modern prose. Themes of mercy and redemption, crime and punishment, the relentless persecution of Valjean by Javert, the desperation of Fantine, and the amorality of the rogue Thénardier capture the intellect and provoke strong emotions throughout this classic. Note: We prefer not to use abridged versions of classic literature, but the length of this novel is daunting. This particular abridgement is the only one we recommend and schedule. ($7.99)

★ Les Misérables Audio Drama by Focus on the Family [3 CD-Set]

Called the most important novel of the 19th century, Les Misérables is a tale of war and revolution, a touching love story, and a tale with some of the most memorable characters in any work of fiction. Most of all, it's a story about a desperate thief whose life is changed when a kind bishop, catching him in the act of stealing precious silver, forgives him. Accustomed to living only for himself, Jean Valjean becomes a kindhearted man who helps a dying woman, cares for her child as if she were his own...and puts his life on the line to help an innocent stranger. This fully-dramatized retelling by Focus on the Family beautifully portrays the enduring tale of an embittered convict whose life is changed by a single act of kindness. ($19.99)

★ Animal Farm

George Orwell's classic satire of the Russian Revolution is an intimate part of our contemporary culture. It is the account of a bold struggle, initiated by the animals, that transforms Mr. Jones's Manor Farm into Animal Farm – a wholly democratic society built on the credo that "All Animals Are Created Equal." Out of their cleverness, the pigs Napoleon, Squealer, and Snowball emerge as leaders of the new community in a subtle evolution that proves disastrous. The climax is the brutal betrayal of the faithful horse Boxer, when totalitarian rule is reestablished with the bloodstained postscript to the founding slogan: "But some Animals Are More Equal Than Others ..." ($16.00)

★ The Celestial Railroad

Nathaniel Hawthorne looked at the Christianity of the mid-1800s and found it wanting. In response he wrote this inspirational allegory, using Pilgrim's Progress as its foundation. The Celestial Railroad begins with a determined man setting out for the Celestial City, just the same as Christian of old did. However, Hawthorne's pilgrim takes the "new and improved" route, traveling on the Celestial Railroad. The author's insights into modern Christianity will challenge you to diligently walk the true pilgrim way, and equip you to notice age-old pitfalls that may be disguised in new ways. ($3.25)

★ Understanding Geometry

This program works well for seventh through ninth grade students who want a visual, critical thinking focused Geometry course. Although it doesn't go as far in depth as other high school courses, it does have sufficient coverage for high-school credit. An answer key is included in the back of the book. ($39.99)
